

CIRCULATION . . 22,831 "WANTS" - - - - 356 "WANTS" - - 6.176

PRICE OVE CENT

NEW YORK, MONDAY, MAY 27, 18 9.

Mystery Maintained Over a Would-Be Morphine Suicide.

A Fashionably Clad Young Man Tries to Kill Himself.

Removed from the United States Hotel to a Hospital This Morning.

An attempt at suicids which has an element of mystery about it was made in the United States Hotel, on the southeast corner of Pearl and Fulton streets, early this morning. The would-be suicide is a young and refined-looking man, who is registered on the police and hospital books as William J.

He was found suffering from morphin poisoning at 1 o'clock this morning in the hotel. He had come down from his room apparently in great agony and confided to hight clerk that his condition was caused by a dose of morphine.

Policeman Desmond had the would-be suicide removed to Chambers Street Hospital.

There, by heroic treatment, he was revived and his life saved.

He did not appear the least bit thankinl for the attention he had received, and stubbornly refused to give any information concerning His garments were fashionably cut, and he semed to be well supplied with money.

Although Policeman Desmond was told that the man's name was Ogden, at the hote that the man's name was Ogden, at the notes, when he was summoned in there, the clerk canned that there had ever been a guest of that name in the house when an Evening World reporter called their later in the morning.

In fact he denied at first any knowledge of any attempt at suicide being made in the hotel. Mr. Hurley, the proprietor of the hotel, was next seen, and shrugging his shoulders said:

"I don't know anything about it."

"But wasn't there a man removed from your house to the hospital this morning?" your house to the hospital this morning?
asked the reporter.

'Yes, I believe there was."

'How long had he been in the house?"

'Beut a week"

'Where did he come from?"

'Out of town some place."

'What was his mans?"

'Don't know.

"You appear to know everything else about him," suggested the reporter.

Mr. Hurley refused to answer any more questions, and then the clerk was seen again, when he admitted that he had heard the case talked of among the guests. He insisted talked of among the guests. He insisted, however, that there was no Ogden or any similar name on the book as a guest of the house.

At the Old slip station the sergeant on duty declared that that was the name given Officer Desmond. If so, it was given with the evident injention of misleading the police, and Capt. McLaughlin will look into the matter. At the heapital the attendants were equally reticent, merely saying that Ogden was in no langer of death, was under arrest, and would be sent to Court as soon as he was well snough to leave the hospital.

Later it was learned that the would-be suicide had registered at the hotel as "William J. Orr. Chicago." a week ago.

Orr. Chicago," a week ago.

He denies that he had tried to kill himself and insisted that he had accidentally taken of

HOW THE CYCLISTS ARE HANDICAPPED.

Twenty Prizes To Be Awarded in the Grea Irvington-Millburn Race.

The greatest cycling event ever held in this ricinity will be the 25-mile road race, which is to be decided Memorial Day, Thursday, next over he Irvington-Millburn course. The following is a complete list of the handicaps:

a complete list of the handicaps:

F. L. Herbert and H. P. Matthews. Brooklyn Bicycle Club; J. W. Bate and J. H. Meilor, Prospect Harriers, and J. M. Williams, Summit, N. J.—ali 15 minutes.
O. C. Boegler, New York; H. Quortrap, Queens
County Wheelmen; W. H. Putney, Mercury Bicycle Club; F. R. Miller, Riverside Wheelmen, and Edwin Douchy, West Winsted—each 13 minutes.
E. Van Wagoner, Nowport, R. I.; J. L. Robertson.
Hudson County Wheelmen; C. W. Kuhney, Tallcottville; A. Jelliff, Brooklyn; H. D. Ludwig, Wilmingston, Ilel; F. W. Lincoln, Flushing, L. I.; J. Purvis, Bruce, Weetboro; Z. H. Lofland, Albert Jefferis, G. M. Gregg,
C. A. Elliott and F. B. Elliott, Wilmington, Del.—each 10 minutes. Elliott and F. D. Billott, ut'es.
Conningsly, M. F. Waters, W. G. Closs and J. Borland, Brooklyn Bleycle Ulub: F. Gubelmann, ersey Athletic Club—each 9 minutes.
Bowwan, New Jersey Athletic Club: Howard is. Wilmingt n. Del. and William Murphy, County Wheelmen—each eight minutes.
Benninger, Charles Murphy, R. W. Steves, Kings y Wheelmen, and M. W. Taxis, Philadelphiamingtes.

each 7 minutes.
John A. Wells, Pennsylvania Bicyle Club; L. H. Wise and M. Schumacher, Long Island Wheelmen, David Morehouse, and F. V. Hesse, Kings County Wheelmen H. O. King, Kings County Wheelmen W. D. Res. Kings County Wheelmen W. D. Res. Kings County W. D. Res. Kin morenouse, and F. V. Hesse, Kings County Wheelmen—each 6 minutes.

H. O. King, Kings County Wheelmen—5 minutes.

W. D. Barker, Pitisburg, Pa.; George M. Nesbitt, New York Bioyole Club; B. F. McDanielle, B. W. Merrihew, Wilmington, Dei; T. J. Hall, Jr., and L. W. Beazley, Kings County Wheelmen—each 4 minutes.

W. Van Wagoner, Newport, R. I., and F. M. Dampner, Wilmington, Del.—each 2 minutes.

T. L. Wilson, Kings County Wheelmen—1 minute.

W. I. Wilhelm, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; H. L. Brodley, Brooklyn Bicycle Club; E. P. Boggett, Hudson County Wheelmen, and Harry J. Hall. Jr., Kings County Wheelmen, scratch.

There will be twenty prizes, and the race will be started promptly at 11 o'clock in the formous. Maplewood station, on the D., L. & W. IIR., is the nearest to the grounds of the race.

BASEBALL STANDING OF THIS MORNING.

Boston 10 6 727 Chicago 13 13 500 Phillippina 14 9 600 Phillippina 11 15 421 New York 14 11 510 Washingtin 6 15 276 Chicago 13 13 500 Phillippina 11 15 421 Chicago 11 15 421

8t. Louis... 26 10 722 Kans's City 17 10 Rreadlyn... 19 12 613 Baltimare 14 16 Cheinnati 19 15 559 Columbus... 10 21 Athletia... 15 14 517 Louisville... 8 24

Lost, eest. Wom, Lost, 4, 778 Newark ... 10 8 7 650 Lowel ... 8 10 8 600 Easton ... 6 14 7 ... 388 New Haven 1 10 A Year Age To-Day. AMERICAN ASS'N

Samuel Lord to be Burted To-Day. The Broadway and Grand street stores Messers. Lord & Taylor will be closed to-day in consequence of the death of Mr. Samuel Lord, who will be buried to-day at Ashton-on Mersey. Chester, England, the place where he died.

Blaze in Third Street. Fire broke out early this morning on the first floor of the four-story brick tenement 200 East Third street. It was occupied by Emil Katz, house furnisher. The damage amounted to

IS HE OGDEN OR ORR? HE SENT BACK THE CHECKS. NONE

LITTLE MORGAN SPEER ABSCONDED ON A CASH BASIS ONLY.

Exploit of the Thirteen-Year-Old Son of Wine Grower Speer, of Passale and New York-Inspector Byrnes Has Given His Men the Word to Look Out for a Lad in Knickerbockers and Straw Hat.

Little Morgan Speer, the thirteen-year-old son of Alfred Speer, an extensive winegrower, of Passaic, N. J., met his uncle, Mr. Joseph T. Spear, the manager of the New York branch of the establishment, and received a package of checks and bills from him for the payment of the employees of the New Jersey wine Company.

Joseph lived further down, so that Morgan used to meet him at Prospect, a station near the Passaic warehouse, and take the money up for him.

On Sa urday night Morgan was accom panied by two other boys-Willie Hartman, aged fifteen, and Thomas Hunt, aged sixteen. When Morgan got the package he considrately sent the checks to the warehouse by a erately sent the checks to the warehouse by a messenger, and then, pocketing the bills, lit out with the other two boys.

They are old hands at running away, but this is the first time Morgan has tried his hand at it. The money the boy took was at first reported to b. $2,000, then $200.

An Eveniso World reporter called at the office of the New Jersey Wine Company, 28 College Place, to-day, but neither of the Speer brothers were in. The book-keeper told the reporter that the checks had been sent to the warehouse and that the bills which Morgan appropriated for his personal use did not amount to $15.

This rather lessens the brilliancy of young Morgan's title to fame as an infant embezzler. It does not weaken his father's wrath very Morgan's title to fame as an infant embezzler. It does not weaken his father's wrath very much, who will give Morgan a piece of his mind—and muscle—when i.e shows up.

Mr. Aifred Speer, the father, is an old gentleman sixty-five years old, and Morgan is his youngest. He binks the bad influence of the other boys led Morgan astray.

Young Speer is four feet high and of rather light build, short hair, black knicker ockers, black stockings, laced shoes a Nortolk black stockings, laced shoes, a Norfolk jacket and straw polo hat.

His father has notified inspector Byrnes of this escapade of Morgan's, as the boys were reported to have taken the 11.30 p. m. train Saturday from Passaic for New York.

A PUZZLE FOR NATURALISTS.

Tailless Monkey with Red Haif and Features of a Deep Vermillon Hue Naturalists will be interested to learn that there is at present in this city an excellent pecimen of the South American saki, or red monkey. It is thought to be the first of its species ever seen in the United States. The animal is about fifteen inches in height, with a on-prehensible tail resembling a ball of hair. Its fur is of a reddish color, the face a deep vermilion. The features are a perfect copy of the milion. The features are a perfect copy of the human face, while the top of the head is bald. The specimen was bought by Donald Burns, importer of rare birds and beasts, from a party of Indians from the Upper Amazon on their way to the Paris Exposition.

The red monkeys are described as gentle in disposition, intelligent, siender of form and partially nocturnal in their habits. They live in couples or small families. The males share with the females the task of rearing the young. The latter, however, when they have attained maturity are ruthlessly driven out to shift for themselves. The species was discovered by the naturalist Paul Corfello, but his report was discredited by his colleagues. Persons desirous of inspecting this singular animal can do so by calling at No. 115 Roosevelt street. It is asserted that no museum or collector in the country has even the skin of one of this species.

RESPITE FOR HELL GATE'S GIANT.

The Lefty Electric-Light Tower's Fall Postponed Until Pleasant Weather.

Owing to an accident to one of the wire guys the work of pulling down the Hell Gate towe had to be suspended on Saturday.

Just as the great structure was about to fall one of the three-quarter-inch wire cables, guyed to the tower to prevent its falling on the house to the tower to prevent its falling on the house beneath, suddenly gave way. The work is stopped until a new cable can be obtained.

The purchasers expected to complete the job this morning, but will have to postpone it until pleasant weather.

When asked what he intended to do with the iron Mr. Donovan said: "I'm going to try and persuade the Commissioner of Parks to allow me to put up an observatory, but if I fail in this I shall have to let it go for old iron."

Mr. Donovan's scheme was to erect it himself and to charge 10 ceuts to ride to the top. After ten years he said he would be willing to have it turned over to the city.

The announcement that Alexander E. Orr, President of the Produce Exchange, will not accept a renomination has occasioned much anyassing of the question. Who is to succeed him? C. C. Burke, the present Vice-President, him? C. C. Burke, the present Vice-Fresident, received the most prominent mention, but a number of men declared that he would not be a strong candidate because he was connected with the Eagle Oil Company, which is controlled by the Standard, and that the anti-monopolists would sit down on him hard. David Jones is poken of as a candidate, as is also E. S. Whitman, but the former's friends say he has no apprations for the presidency and that they will be satisfied if he is elected to a place in the board of managers, while there is a growing disposition to run Mr. Whitman for second place on the ticket with Mr. Burke.

Dropped Part of Their Booty. A policemen of the Twenty-second Precinct saw two men carrying a large bundle at the cor-ner of Tonth avenue and Forty-first street yeserday morning about 5 o'clock. He hailed them, and they started to run. At Forty-second street and Eleventh avenue they dropped their bundle and ran into a tenement house, whence they escaped through the roof. At the station the bundle was found to contain a large amount of ladies' wearing appearel. The property was identified by Miss Annie Morrow, of No. 599 Tenth avenue. The thieves had entered through a rear window. They also stole cash and diamond jewelry amounting to about $300, which was not recovered. The thieves are yet at large.

A Piece of Sharp Dealing.

St. Paul, May 27.—The suit of the St. Paul Distilling Company against J. B. Joslyn and General Manager G. W. Hicks brings to light interesting business methods. On Hicks's recommendation Joslyn was awarded building contracts at figures far in excess of the real value. Hicks then claimed to have paid the amount, and was reimbursed in stock to which he had subscribed. The suit is to obtain this stock or a judgment for $100,000.

AUSTIN, Tex.. May 27.—Two boys named Frick and William Metz, aged about twelve. were drowned vesterdey while fishing in the Colorado river, one mile above the city. Both were sons of prominent citizens. Frick's body was recovered, but the only trace of Metz was his hat lying on the bank with a bullet-hole through it. There is an element of mystery in the affair.

A Sick Mother Four Days Side by Side With Her Dead Babe, Dark Side of Civilization in a Mulberry Street Tenement.

The Woman is Helpless and Destitute and Some Official Has Blundered.

Clad in a neat little white lace dress, with its head covered by a trim little cap of the same material, lay the body of the threedays-old daughter of Michaelo Simeoni in a champagne basket in a back room of the tenement 165 Mulberry street when an Evenino WORLD reporter called this morning.

The baby was born on Wednesday. In spite of its frail condition it lived until Friday, when it became mck and died. If Mrs. Simeoni had had money baby's life night have been saved; but she was destitute and a physician's services must be paid for, no matter what the circumstances of the nationt happened to be. After the baby died the doctor was notified and he gave the heart-broken mother a paper, probably a death certificate, which he told her must be sent to the Coroners' office.

A neighbor took the paper to the Coroners' office and was told that the baby would be buried. That was on Friday afternoon, but when the reporter called this morning the child's body was still lying near the bed-side of its wother. side of its mother.

The house is one of the worst of Mulberry street rookeries. The front house is quite respectable in appearance, but on entering a long, narrow alley leading to the rear house traces of misery and squalor are to be seen on all sides.

all sides.

A bright little Italian lad, who earns his living by selling Evenino Worlds, met the reporter as he approached the house.

"Oh, yes; the poor ladv in the rear basement," said he. "She's got a little baby wot died, and they ain't buried it yet. I feel so sorry for her," and he led the reporter down a flight of brick steps to the basement. He rapped on the door, but there was no response.

"Wait here," he said, and with the agility went outside, clumbed in the window and unlocked the door from the inside. The reporter entered. The room was a small hobox, with a low ceiling. Traces of poverty were everywhere.
It was very dark. At the end of the roon was a door leading into what appeared to be a closet. It was Mrs. Simeoni's bedroom.

a closet. It was Mrs. Simeoni's bedroom.

The poor woman lay upon a bed covered over with several old blankets. She is a very sick woman, and unable to leave her bed, and her cries of agony and moans for the loss of her dead baby were piteous.

There are no windows in the room, and day and night are just the same to the grief-stricken mother.

After the reporter had been in the place a few minutes he could see the outlines of the baby's body. The newsboy brought in a lighted candle that flickered its rays around the walls of the den.

Mrs. Simeoni cannot speak English. She cares-sed the baby's head with her hand and cried bitterly.

Several tender-hearted neighbors came in and tried to comfort her, and one of them, a neat-looking Italian girl, Mrs. Corrello, told the sad story.

Mrs. Simeoni came to this country a year ago with her husband and seven-year-old daughter. daughter.

Two months after their arrival the daughter was taken sick and died. The father is a laborer and goes away from the city, sometimes staying for several months, He went away about three months ago, eaving his wife in the Mulberry street don to live as best she might. He has not written nor sent any money since his departure.

Early last Wednesday Mrs. Simeoni gave birth to the child. It was a surprise, as the event was not expected to occur until the latter part of July. Dr. G. Lapenta, of 202 Mott street, attended her. Life was kept in the little cone; body with I Friday when it the little one's body until Friday, when it died.

Then the Charities Department was notified, but no attention was paid to the case until yesterday morning, when the city hearse appeared and the driver asked for the child.

child.

As soon as he found that the poor woman had no burial permit he refused to take the body and went away. The reporter heid the lighted candle down over the baby's face and found that mortification had already begun.

The atmosphere of the room was horrible. A stench arose from the floor and was increased by a lot of unwashed cooking utensils that had been left by the crowd of men when they started for their daily labor this morning.

morning.

Mrs. Simeoni could not tell what she would Mrs. Simeon could not tell what she would do in case the baby was not buried by the city. She has no money and her neighbors are too noor to give her any. She is very sick and her condition and surroundings are of the worst. She is all alone in the day-time and at night her diminutive quarters are shared with seven or eight dirty, noisy men.

DRILLING IN THE RAIN.

Bluecoats Got Wet To-Day Preparing for Friday's Parade. The police force had a full-dress drill this norning under adverse circumstances, the rain naking Seventh avenue muddy and spoiling their white helmets.

The drill was shortened and in less than an hour the men were dismissed and sent to their respective precincts.

The annual parade will take place on Friday, the line of march being from the Battery along Broadway to Twenty-third street, to Madison avenue, to Forteth street, to Fifth avenue, to Broadway and Madison Square, where the review will take place.

Another point has been learned in connection with the Mary Tobin case. James Farley, brakeman on the Rapid Transit road, says that about 1 o'clock on the night of April 29 he was talking with the ticket agent at the Sailors' Snug ffarbor station when he noticed a woman whose description tallies with that of Miss Tobin walking along the street towards New Brighton. She seemed to be in great distress, moving slowly and talking to herself. He spoke to her and received a rather incoherent answer. She continued on her way, striking the trees and telegraph voles with her parasol, and he never saw her again. He is of the opinion that it was Miss Tobin. talking with the ticket agent at the Sailors

He Thinks She Was Mary Tobin.

Killed by a New Haven Train. A man about twenty-five years old, who from papers found on his person is supposed to be

2 O'CLOCK.

MOB VENGEANCE.

It Overtakes the Perpetrator of a Dastardly Crime in Michigan.

Mulatto Prisoner Dragged Through the Streets at a Rope's End.

His Body Finally Left Swinging From an Iron Bridge Girder.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PORT HURON, May 27 .- A horrible lynchng took place here this morning, the victim being a mulatto named Albert Martin, who assaulted Mrs. John Gillis a fortnight ago. At 2 o'clock this morning a gang of fifty men, coming from no one knows where, whirled through the streets, stormed the jail, eat down the doors and threw a noose round Martin's neck as he lay in his cell. Then, with a blood-curdling yell that ould have been heard for a mile, the mob arted on a run. Martin was unable to regain his feet, and is he was dragged through the Sheriff's office out to the street his head struck a coal-stove with such force as to turn it half way round. Amid shouts and the firing of revolvers the nfuriate mob headed for the Seventh street bridge, three blocks away.

They had to turn two street corners on heir way, and as they made the turn the poor wretch's head caught in the stone covering the gutter. No effort was made to extricate him, and

No effort was made to extricate him, and the half was only long enough to give a terrible tug on the rope, by which the body was released.

The noose on the rope had loosened, and the knot, being in front, slipped over the prisoner's chin and into his month.

It was then tigh ened until his lower jaw was pulled down upon his neck in a manner which must have caused the victim terrible suffering.

which must have caused the victim terrible suffering.
Upon arriving at the bridge, one end of the rope was thrown over an iron stringer and Martin was swung off.
His body, which by this time must have been lifeless, was left hanging and with a few parting shots the mob quit the scene.
No attempt has been made to arrest any member of the mob.

vistfully through the grated doors of her cell in Yorkville Court prison, when an Evening World reporter called to see her this morn-

Miss Hartmann is a blonde, possesses a good figure and an attractive face. She says she is a seamstress and lives at 42 Clinton place.

She was arrested on complaint of Julius Bauer, janitor at the hospital, who swore that he saw her leave the child on the steps and then run away.

"It is a falsehood," said Miss Hartmann to the reporter, when he asked her about the case this morning.

"I was visiting friends in West Sixtieth street. having gone there to ask them to read a letter which I had received from my

" When I went home I went to Fifty-ninth street by way of Tenth avenue, intending to take the Elevated read. take the Elevated read.

'I had nearly reached Ninth avenue when this man ran after me and grassed my arm.

'Come back here, he said. There is some one in the hospital who wants to see you. Who are you? I asked. 'I don't know you. 'I went back though, for I was so fright-ened I hardly knew what I did. When I got there the man showed me a lit le baby in the hall. He said: 'Now, you'd better take this babe along with you and there won't be any trouble.'

trouble."
"'I will not,' I said. 'The child doesn't belong to me. and why should I take it.'
"' Well, I'll call in a policeman, then,' he said.

'I don't care if you do,' I replied. Then I was arrested and locked up. I never had the child, nor did I ever see it before.

'But supposing it was my child would I take it to the Maternity Hospital and run the risk of arrest? Not much; I'd take it to the Foundling Hospital, where no questions would be asked. I was taken before Justice Power yesterday, and although he was convinced of my innocence he held me for examination."

amination."

Miss Hartmann said she was willing to submit to a medical examination and prove thus that she had had no child. She indignantly denied that it was somebody else's child she was trying to dispose of.

The friend she was visiting, she said, was Mrs. Josie Goodwin, of 125 West Sixtieth sireet. When the reporter called at that address, however, he could find no one answer-

The Norton Testimonial Benefit Many of the leading political lights of this city, including Chamberlain Croker, Sheriff Flack, Corporation Counsel Clark and President Furroy, of the Fire Department, were present at Declarations About Dr. Cronin's Murder.

> It Is aid to Have Been Ordered by the Clan-Na-Gael.

A Chicago Report That Others Were to Have Shared His Fate.

ciety Disbelieved in New York.

The Accusation Against the So-

Was John Devoy Marked Out for a Victin Also?

CHICAGO, May 27.-Developments in the matter of the Cronin murder seem to gather as quickly in three days as the mystery settled about it at the time of the doctor's disappearance. At almost every turn some new clue is discovered which materially strengthens the position of those who are engaged in the hunt for the murder-DR. P. H. CRONIN. ers. Following close upon the implication of Detective Coughlin and the discovery of the cottage which was beyone doubt the scene of the outrage comes the substantial confirmation of the theory that Dr. Cronin's death was the result of a deliberate donverten in the secret session of an organized body—a committee of the Clan-na-Gael.

30

The doctor was tried before this Committee, but without his knowledge, and against him was entered the decree that he should be "removed."

'removed."
Here again the name of Le Caron, the Here again the name of Le Caron, the Pritish spy, comes into the case, for it is declared that the action of the Committee against Dr. Cronin followed the cateled reports from London as to Le Caron's admission before the Parnell Commission that there were four more spies in America, whose names he dared not give for fear of his life.

Le Caron afterwar's did give the names in secret to Justice Hannan, and the suspicion that Dr. Cronin was one of them gave rise to the trial, conviction and murder of the

SHE DENIES IT ALL.

SHE DENIES IT ALL.

Miss Hartmann Locked Up For Abandoning a Child.

Miss Annie Hartmann, who is accused of abandoning a child on the doorstep of the Maternity Hospital, Fifty-ninth street and Tenth avenue, last Saturday night, was gazing wistfully through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated doors of her cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated through the grated to so the cell in Verbille Court prison when an Every through the grated that the claim to doctor.

But there were plenty of patriotic Irishmen who did not believe in Dr. Cronin's guilt, who remained his triends, who would have saved him, who will assist to the utmost in the prosecution of his murderers.

Dr. Cronin was one of them gave rise to the trial, conviction and murder of the doctor.

But there were plenty of patriotic Irishmen who did not believe in Dr. Cronin's guilt, who remained his triends, who would have saved him, who will assist to the utmost in the prosecution of his murderers.

Dr. Cronin had many times felt that his life was in danger, but his friends knew more than he, and some of the most zealous of the head even kept a private detective upon his track for nearly a year to guard against possible attack. Of this the doctor knew nothing, as his friends did not wish to alarm his beyond measure.

The Carlson cot age, in Ashland avenue, is constantly guarded by the police, and no one constantly thronged with these visitors.

Another arrest in connection with the service of the man tries to find the provide with the service of the man tries to find the provide with the service of the man tries to find the provide with the subscitcing the provide wi constantly thronged with those visitors.

Another arrest in connection with the horse-thief Woodruff's story of the affair is that of the man King, said by Woodruff to be the one who hired him to steal Dean's horse carry the bloody trunk away.

The list of strange men whose appearances and disappearances are brought up as bearing on the case has been increased by the addition of a tail, athletic and red-harred man, who gave the name of Frawley and hired rooms of Mrs. Gillette, at 226 Ontario street.

He was well educated and made a most agreeable impression: yet be had mysterious ways and changed considerably for the worse in disposition during the last week he was there.

He was called for, May 18, by another stranger, thought from his description to be the man who hired the Carlson cottage, and has not been seen since.

This Frawley told fictitious stories as to his business, and in departing neglected to settle his bill. He was well'educated and made a most agree-

The police deny that P. O. Sullivan, the ice dealer, has been arrested, as was reported this morning. WAS DEVOY MARKED, TOO ?

OTHERS SAID TO HAVE BEEN DOOMED TO DIE WITH CRONIN.

One of the most sensational developments n connection with the murder of Dr. Cronin. of Chicago, is the assertion, which is made in this morning's despatches that several other prominent Irishmen had been included in the same secret death sentence which has ust been executed against Croniu.

The men who are said to have been tried, convicted and sentenced to death by this secret conclave are W. J. Hynes, of Chicago, the well-known lawyer, and formerly a Conressman; Father Gleason and Capt. J. P. O'Connor, also of Chicago, and John Devoy and two others, of this city.

It is also stated that Cronin's "removal," as well as that of the others mentioned, was ordered by a committee representing the lan-na-Gael Society, which has its headjuarters in Chicago, on the ground that they were traitors to the Irish cause, their pames having been divulged by Le Caron, the spy, during the progress of the recent investiga-tion of the Parnell Commission.

DOUBTED IN NEW YORK.

evidence that the plot was a deep-laid one, in which many persons all over the country were interested.

WAS JOHN DEVOY MARKED TOO? John Devoy, who, it is well known, was a supporter of Dr. Cronin in his charges against the Chicago el que of the Clan-ina-Gael, which is in control of the affairs of the Society, could not be found this morning. Several of his friends, however, said that the report that he was marked for death was probably a canard, a though hreats had been several times made by the Chicago clique that those who opposed them had better look out for themselves.

Editor Patrick J. Mechan, of the Irish-for themselves,

Editor Patrick J. Meehan, of the Irish-American, who is one of the best informed men in this city upon questions reating to Irish affairs in this country, said to a reporter of The Eventho Wonld this morning: "This attempt to explain the foul murder

"This attempt to explain the four marker of Dr. Cronin by saying that he was a traitor to the cause and charging him with assisting to give information against Parnell in the London Times prosecution is absurd. RESULT OF A LOCAL FIGHT.

"Cronin's murder, in my opinion, was the result of a pure, y local fight which use been going on in the Clan-na-Gael itself or a long time past against the pre-ent eadership of that organization. Everybody knows about it and knows too that the leaders were very bitter in their enmity against Cronin and his adherents.

Said Here That a Triumvirate Plotted NEW YORK MEMBERS ON CRONIN'S SIDE. "All the New York members were on the side of Cronin and Devoy, and the charges which they brought against the leaders, that of measurements funds of the society, to the amount of $100.000, intended for the Irish cause, but the Chicago clique were kept in power by the superior numbers of the order in the West.

"There were two or three men who ran the whole thing, and although I am not going to mention any names, every one knows who they are.

ing to mention any names, every one knows who they are.

"It is nothing more or less than a trium-virate, and they rule things with arbitrary and supreme power. They have had control of the Irish National Lesgue for y. ars, and it was just the evidence that Cronin possessed against them that would in all probability have ousled them from power when the annual convention is held next July.

"They have been making all sorts of threats against Cromn and his adherents and it seems a plain case now that they selected him to put out of the way because they regarded him as the most dangerous of their foes.

"I do not say that they did the job themselves, but they pointed out the dog, as it were, and there were plenty to be found to do the final business.

"It was all instigated by a few men, whoever may have carried it out, and I don't believe there was any committee appointed to bod these alleged secret truls by any considerable number of the Clan-fa-Gael.

WAS IT PAYING OFF A PRIVATE GRUDGE? ALL SORTS OF THREATS.

WAS IT PAYING OFF A PRIVATE GRUDGE? "It was simply paying off a private grudge against Cronin by some of his bitterest enemies right there in Chicago and Irish politics had nothing whatever to do with it. So far as I know there is not an Irishman in New York who would not 1 ke to see Cronin's murderers brought to justice.

THOSE REPORTS OF MURDER. Everybody knows that immediately after Cronin's disappearance reports were widely circulated that he had been made away with for political reasons. Those reports in my opinion, were circulated by the enemies of Cronin to cover up the real motive for the "I think that when the facts all come out.

"I think that when the facts all come out, as there seems to be a prospect that they will now that so many clues have been obtained, they will prove the truth of this statement.

"These people had a great deal at stake, and if Cronin had proved the truth of his charges they would not only have been thrown from power, but they would without doubt have been obliged to leave the country.

try.

'There were a great many more reasons why they should have been anxious to get him out of the way for such reasons as these than for any of the political reasons alleged, even if the latter were true, which they were

The facts which have thus far come out have been simply learned by accident, and the cause for he lack of activity on the part of the police is clearly explained b velopments which have followed Detective SLOW POLICE WORK. "Another very queer thing in connection with the slow work of the police is the fact that the Chicago force which was three years ago Democratic, is now Republican, and in sympathy with the Clan-na-Gael clique in Chicrgo.

WILL COUGHLIN SQUEAL?

"There is a general opinion here that Coughlin will squeal to save his own neck, for they have certainly evidence enough to connect in mith the murder as an accessory, even if he was not an active accomplice, and he is likely to give everything away. AN ATTEMPT TO KILL MEEHAN.

"The same sort of thing was tried on me by hered assassens in 1870, just before the O'Neil and in Canada. I was at that time a Senator in the Fenian Assembly and I op-posed the raid very strongly, "It was instigated by this same Le Caron,

"It was instignted by this same Le Caron, and they marked me out as a man to be gotten rid of.
"I was shot down in Broadway and I carry the bullet yet. The man who shot me was a young Irish medical student, who had come over here without a friend in the world. I betriended him, but they selected him for my assassin, and when he attempted my life he was primed with whiskey.

"The raid failed and Le Caron was the only man who profited by it, for he got possession of the arms and ammunition and sold them to a firm in Portland, Me., and pocketed the money. That was the death blow of the Fenan organization, and it has not been in existence now these twenty years, despite all assertions to the contrary.

"I have no doubt that it will be shown that Dr. Cronin's murder was the result of private emitty of the same kind."

EDWARD J. BOWE'S VIEWS.

EDWARD J. BOWE'S VIEWS. Edward J. Rowe, of No. 30 New Bowerv, who is a prominent member of the New York Clan-na-Gael, said this morning:

'There is not au Irishman in this city whom I have talked with who would not be glad to see the murderers of Dr. Cronin, and al those who were amociated in the crime,

THE CHICAGO CLIQUE AGAIN. "It was the result of a per onal spite sgainst Dr. Cronin, in my o inion, and I agree with Mr. Mechan in the view that the hicago c ique al ne was responsible for it.
I don't take any stock in the report that others have been condemned to death by the same clique.
"It is not a matter that the organization brought to justice.

at large is interested in and the conspiracy could not possibly have been sanctioned by any large number of members. Only two or three were in it, and they ought to be found and convicted." JUST MESZEROFF'S DESCRIPTION.

jects he used to give evening lectures to the boarders in the louse where he lived.

His appearance, according to these descriptions, corresponds verp nearly to that of "Prof. Mezzeroff," the dynamiter, who has not been seen in this city for several months. His acquaintances here, including O'Dougyan Rossa, do not know what has become of him.

WHERE IS MORONEY.

James J. Moroney, another New Yorker, who is a member of the Clan.na-Gael, and who is known to have been among the opposition to Dr. C. onin, has also been away from town for some time.

Several other Clan.na-Gael men in New York deny that there is any fruth in the statement that as soon as news was received here of Le (aron's statement that there were four other spices in this country every Clan.na-Gael camp in America met and passed resolutions favoring a rigid hunt for them. In fact, no such information was ever received.

WHAT CHIEF BYENES BAYS OF IT.

WHAT CHIEF BYRNES BAYS OF IT.

WHAT CHIEF BYRNES BAYS OF IT.

When asked this morning what he thought of the Cronin tragedy in Chicago, Inspector Byrnes said that it would be manifestly improper for him to express an opinio, upon it, and, whatever personal view he might have, he preferred to kee; his coun el.

As to what he thought of the efficiency of the Chicago police, the Inspector said:

'No city of the size of Chicago can expect an efficient police force as long as its present law governing the body of men exists. The Mayor is supreme there, and should a policeman in the performance of his duty arrest or interfere with a man who is a politician or has a political pull he is liable to be a lied before the Mayor or Chief of Police and dismissed instanter without a hearing.

'To maintain an efficient police this system must be changed, and men must feel and know that an honest performance of duty will be recognized and their tenure of office is not dependent entirely upon a change of administration of the city's affairs by the vote of the people. The same state of affairs would exist here under similar circumstances,"

VICTORY FOR MRS. AYER.

JUDGE DALY DECIDES AGAINST SON-IN-

Judge Daly to-day, in Common Pleas, General Term, decided against James M. Sey-

The motion to continue the injunction restraining him from selling, transferring or voting upon stock in the Recamier Company, which she alleges was obtained fraudulently. is granted; the motion on behalf of Sermour and others to discontinue the action brought by the Recamier Manufacturing Company i denied. The motion of Mrs. Aver's counsel for the appointment of a Receiver for the Company is granted.

Bridgeport Stiniator Who Spoke Slights tugly of Washington and Grant.

ond Congregational Church. A few weeks ago Mr. McNeille delivered a sernon in which he spoke slightingly of George Washington and Gen. Grant, and his remarks

Resolved. That in deference to our pastor, and to the feelings of possibly a large number of the members of the oburch and congregation, we recommend that all criticism of our pastor be saired for the present to the hope that all grounds of complaint may, in the near future, be removed.

They borrowed $60 and had the body sent on. The remains arrived here at 2,25 this morn-

WHERE IS THE BOAT'S CREW? The Wreck of the David W. Hunt Passed

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. QUEENSTOWN, May 27.—The Cunard steamer Servia, arrived here, reports passing the wreek of an American schooner. It was the David W. Hunt, of Bath, Me. There was no trace of the crew.

St. Mary's Hospital Garden Party. The Ladies' Aid Association of St. Mary's Hospital, St. Mark's avenue, Brooklyn, will hold a garden party on the hospital grounds rsin did much damage in this vicinity, yester-day, unroofing houses and barns and lifting light structures from their foundations. In a cemetry near this city nearly all the monuments were demolished.

Little Willie Wells's Funeral. William H., the ten-year-old sou of Horsce L. and Josephine Wells, will be buried at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from his late residence, 237 East Eighty-fifth street.

PRICE ONE CENT.

come of him. WHERE IS MORONEY.

LAW SEYMOUR.

mour on the preliminary motions in the pro-ceedings instituted by Mrs. Harriet Hubbard Ayer against him.

HE WAS CRITICISED, AND RESIGNED.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 27.—Rev. R. G. S. McNeille has resigned the pastorate of the Sec-caused a whirlwind of criticism. A number of meetings were held, at which opinions were freely expressed.

At the last meeting a resolution was passed and forwarded to the pastor, as follows:

Yesterday the church was filled to overflowing with a congregation expecting to hear what action M. McNeille would take.

Hev. Mr. Ives occupied the pulpit, and did not allude to the trouble in the church.

In each seat there was a circular announcing Rev. Mr. McNeille's resignation and calling a meeting for next Friday to take action in regard ing, but it was found that they were not those of young White.

NOT THEIR SON'S BODY.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 27.—James White, ir., aged twenty-three, left his home in this city on April 2 without telling his parents of his plans. Last Saturday night they received a telegram that he was dead in a hospital at Cleveland.

The body was that of a man about thirty-five years old. years old.
It is supposed that his name was really James White, and that the telegram announcing his death went to the wrong ramily.

June 5 and 6, the proceeds to be devoted to the hospital fund, which has been heavily drawn upon by the large number of patients graini-tously treated during theoast Winter. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

Some of the most prominent Irishmen in New York, both those connected with the Clan.na-Gael and outside of the Society, doubt this version of the story, and say that it is only a device by which the real murderers of Cronin seek to cover up their tracks and turn the detectives off the trail.

It appears upon investigation that there are several persons not residents of Chicago who are suspected of being accessories of the crime and the arrest of McGeehin, of Philadelphis, reported this morning is taken as One of the mysterious persons whom the Chicago authorities are looking for is a man named Frawley, who is suspected of having some connection with the crime.

He is described as a tall, muscular man with curly red hair, who could speak several foreign ianguages and had a weakness for mathematics and chemistry, on which subthe Norton testimonial benefit at the Academy of Music last evening. The affair was a success in every way, and it is estimated nearly $20,000 was raised for the family of the deceased Justice Norton. Business Manager Comstock was presented with a handsome diamond pendant in recognition of his efficient services. Henry Fuchs, was struck by a north bound freight train on the New York and New Haven line between Hunt's Point and Springhurst at 12,20 this morning. He died at the Hunt's Point depot. He was light complexioned and wore dark clothing.